

Why Volta?

In a piece of music, "volta" highlights specific moments in time. For some of these young musicians, this is their first time on stage, some their second or third.

There comes a time when our rock band students are ready to shine for the world to see, and this time just happens to be... now.

The Volta Youth Music Festival will feature local professional musicians, including our rock band directors and other local bands, coming together to support Eastern Iowa's youth talent. The Eastern Iowa Arts Academy's seven youth bands will also perform for a day-long variety of music on stage. There will be food, drink, and an incredible auction. Your support ensures that this event will shine like no other with one unified goal, supporting our incredible kids.

Go Volta. The time is now.
Thank you for your support!
